running a college newspaper frequently resembles leading a band of thirsting cape buffalo into a lake without allowing them to drink. in a college year fraught with rampant bickerings, bitchings, and various assorted tripe, sachetti managed not only to sift out the valuable and informative news from the worthless and inferior garbage; but he presented it in a clearly understandable way. with the morning press being the only other "newspaper" in the good ole bsc homestead, the importance of the maroon & gold's coverage of such events as the january (et. al.) board of trustees meeting proved invaluable to the college community. despite threats from everyone from advertisers to deake porter, jim sachetti wrangled his way through to become one of the most successful college newspaper editors in bloomsburg's history. but the problems on campus were not the only headaches of the paper's editor. organizing and directing a staff of aspiring young journalists (from lost freshmen to know-it-all upperclassthings) is an important task of the editor. jim was not immune to grumbles and gripes from those who felt "things" should be different. jim actually managed to get his staff to work, most of the time. in bloomsburg, that's something. now that sufficient praise has been aptly showered over he who peers from the opposite page, we close on a somber note — gone home to his "cooch" in metropolitan hazleton, sachetti reigns no more.

it has been a year of rebuilding for rookie coach sproule and the huskies. however, the young team edged out a 4-5 record in rough conference competition.

bob warner, co-captain of the huskies, was the leading rusher with 543 yards and second highest scorer with 32 points. he also was second in rushing in the conference, named twice to the e.c.a.c. player of the week, and placed on the first team of the all penn conference. in the thirteenth round of the pro-football draft, he was selected by the denver broncos. along with bob, other three-letter winners were; tom baltuskonis, kenneth klock, robert parry, and daniel stellfox.

rich walton was picked by the all penn conference for their first team. rich, john cox, glen dewire, len house, henry johns, neil oberholtzer, steve shiffert, galen troup, and jeff white were all double letter recipients.

with the loss of only three seniors and the experience of the sophomores and juniors, coach sproule will have fine veteran players for the club next season.

the b.s.c. wrestling squad on december 1 voted to suspend the 1971-72 season. the team, cut to 15 members due to injuries and sickness, discussed the problems numerous times with dr. stephen bresett, chairman of the dept. of physical education and athletics, dean edson drake, and carl hinkle, acting wrestling coach. unable to resolve their problems, the team voted 12 to 3 against continuing the season. the reasons given were lack of interest on the part of the student body, lack of men, there weren't enough guys to compete, circumstances brought on by last may's incident, things just weren't the same, lack of men in each weight class to continue, for the purpose of preserving the college's outstanding reputation in wrestling, and too much player dissention.
we can only hope that until next year most of the existing problems can be resolved, and that bloomsburg state can once again produce the fine wrestling teams which it has done in previous years.

it has been a rough year for coach noble and the marathon men. many injuries to top runners kept the team at less than full strength the entire season. however, the team captured third place in the district 19 n.a.i.a. meet on october 26 at millersville state college and placed sixth at west chester on november 6 in the penn conference championships. coach noble will be losing only two men and have a strong core of veterans returning for next years schedule.

ron puhl's cindermen capped a successful season with a second place finish in the 37th. annual state championships. the record stands at 11-2 with losses only to the university of maryland and millersville, ending the year five points away from a defeatless season.

senior captain, jim davis set a new record in the 100 yd. dash and became a double winner in the 100 and the 220 yd. contests at the state meet. larry strohl was undefeated in the one half mile event. state record holder john fleck lost once this season in the shot contest. bob laciock set a new b.s.c. mark in the high jump at 6'5". a freshman, eric keteriz, vaulted 13' for another b.s.c. record. over the past three years, the cindermen have compiled a most impressive 36-3 record. the new field house should be in use for the 72-73 season, improving the practice facilities for a greater, if possible, year.

putting together a yearbook isn't an easy task. putting together a yearbook that pleases everyone is even more difficult. we don't promise that this book will satisfy everyone, because it won't. it represents a conglomeration of a years thought, work and happenings, placed together as graphicly as we know how. please look, and remember.
